

Play it Again: Could we Start Again, Please?

CHASE:

I've been living to leave you.
Trying to leave, but then I stay just one more day
This was unexpected
A place I want to be
Tell me I've come home, please

All I can remember is leaving
Prep school rooms and college dorms and hasty one night stands
Hurry up and tell me
You could feel the same
Tell me I've come home please

GEOFF:

I can't believe you're here now
It feels like I can finally put finally put this mess I've made to rest
Tell me I'm forgiven for all the pain I've caused
And tell me I've come home please

CHASE:

I've been living to leave you
Now I find I've changed my mind; I need us to go on
This was unexpected
A love I want to feel
So tell me I've come home please

I can't believe you're here now

BOTH:

It feels like I can finally put finally put this mess I've made to rest
